As well as the manufacture of our own product, Filterfit can manufacture generic copies of other industry standard filters.

This guide is intended to assist with the identification of air filters installed in various applications.

If available, model numbers and cross references will help to match to Filterfit's equivalents.

When ordering filters, please provide as much information as possible as there are many types and models available.

These generic filters are available in all Filterfit media and media combinations.

Non standard sizes can be made upon request.

If in doubt contact Filterfit for more information or to arrange an onsite visit from one of our technical representatives.

When ordering, please specify the following criteria:

- ➔ Size (width x height x depth mm)
- ➔ Media type (washable or disposable)
- ➔ Retainer type i.e. header frame
- ➔ Retainer wire separate or fixed to media etc.
